

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the condition that this device does not cause harmful interference.