This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules.
Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

1. This device may not cause harmful interference.

and 2. This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.