Gentlemen:

In Reference to PD800W: Confidentiality

Pursuant to 47 CFR 0.457(d) of the FCC Rules, information that is considered "trade secret" and not routinely available to the public may be withheld from public inspection if a request for non-disclosure is submitted pursuant to CFR 0.459

Certain material being submitted to the FCC in the form of a Block Diagram and Schematic with specific component information and labeled Diagram 1 PD800W Transmitter is considered a "Trade Secret" and not available to anyone other than the technical staff at Bierer & Associates, Inc. The design, layout and specific components contained on the Block Diagram were obtained at considerable expense to Bierer and Associates, Inc. and we request confidentiality pertaining to Block Diagram and Schematic and it be unavailable on the FCC website.

Sincerely,

Jan F. Kennerly Jr.
VP Engineering & Operations
