Operational Description

Intended use:
The transmitter shall be used to call forward customers in a queue system.

Daily use for personnel:
Press button with the Arrow image to call forward a customer, normal transmitting length is 1-2sec.

Press button with the Cross image to shut down the counter, normal transmitting length is 1-2sec.

Press button with the Bell image to send an alarm to supervisor, normal transmitting length is 1-2sec.

Battery indicator led:
Is placed in between the Alarm and the Close button. As long as this indicator is flashing during operation the battery power is ok.