REF: Declaration about the 2 variants with FCC ID: RX2RKE192

Dear Sir or Madam:

Due to the business consideration, we hereby declare that our product with FCC ID: RX2RKE192 can have 2 different variants.

Description of the differences:

- 1) The enclosure is different for the 2 variants. One of the variants has 2 buttons and the other variant has 3 buttons so the functionality to open the trunk is disabled in the version with 2 buttons.
- 2) A push button (the one related to functionality of trunk opener and closing) was depopulated from the PCB of the version with 3 buttons.
The Bill Of Material (BOM) is the same for the two version except for two components (PB3 and D1) that are not mounted in the 2 buttons version. This differences are listed in the Delta Bom in Table 1.

DELTA BOM
2 buttons Version	3 buttons Version
Not Present	PB3 - Button
Not Present	D1 - Diode

Table 1

Both variants of the product are electrically identical.

Compliance/Responsibility statements:

- Test report according to Part 15C for the worst case variant (3 buttons) is valid and applicable for the variant with 2 buttons and it is representative of the compliance of this equipment.

Sincerely

By: Roberto Salemi
