

Two Technologies, Inc.

APPLICATION FOR CHANGE OF IDENTIFICATION

October 12, 2007

Two Technologies, Inc. desires a Change of Identification of the Futaba Corporation Model FDQ-02T radio with FCC ID number AZP-FDQ02T in order to apply for a Class II Permissive Change that will allow Two Technologies, Inc. to include the above identified Futaba Corporation radio module in our JETT.XL line of hand held computers.

Two Technologies, Inc. will make no internal or external changes to the module manufactured by Futaba Corporation except for placing a label as required by the application. The label will contain the new FCC ID number RYJ-FDQ02T that we are requesting with the application for a Change of Identification.
