User manual attestation

This FCC application is for the transceiver (antenna and RF PCB), FCC ID: S8OHYPER1730, part of the Alert HyperGuard system that is made up of the transceiver and Combo box.

The user guide describes the installation and use of both the transceiver and the combo box as these two devices form a complete system and are purchased together.

Only the transceiver is being certified. The combo box will undergo the correct authorization procedure in accordance with FCC rule part 2J and will be labelled accordingly.

Only the transceiver part of the user manual has been considered for this FCC application.

Yours Sincerely,

Verner Falkenberg
