

Digital Modulation

The type of modulation used is FM (frequency modulation). Two audio tones of 1200 hertz and 1800 hertz are used to FM modulate the transmitter. Since it is FM the duty cycle is 100 percent during transmission of the data packet.