

The label mounts on the bottom of the device. Due to venting required in the plastics, the label is too small to include the FCC Part 15 conditional statement. This statement is placed in the Safety and Regulatory Information Sheet provided to the User.

