Re: SRM9000 OCCUPATIONAL USE RF EXPOSURE

9 December 2004

To Whom It May Concern:

The SRM9000 series of mobile communications equipment is designed for Occupational/ Controlled use only. The SRM9000 series of mobile communications equipment is not intended for use by the General Population.

Some examples of applications for which the SRM9000 mobile series could be used include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Business
- Commercial activities
- Emergency services
- Film and Video Production
- Forest Products
- Manufacturers
- Motor Carriers
- Petroleum
- Power
- Railroad
- Special Industrial
- Taxicab
- Telephone Maintenance

Accordingly TMC Radio Pty Ltd is applying for the SRM9000 series of mobile communications equipment to be certified to Occupational/ Controlled exposure limits.

Yours Truly,

Terry E. Clarke
