

Part 1033(c)(8):

The DC voltage applied to and the DC current into the several elements of the final radio frequency amplifying device for normal operation over the power range are 7.1 volts and 1.6 amps typical.