

The label locates under the cover of antenna feed and is visible to the users as they remove the cover to plug in ethernet cable.