To whom it may concern,

Ventana HE 600 (Marketing name), 06917259001 (Product Code), is a platform consisting of instrument, software, and reagents, used for hematoxylin and eosin staining of histologic sections from formalin- fixed, paraffin-embedded tissues. Its need for Original Certification is driven by the presence of the RFID functionality, which operates at 13.56 MHz (FCC 15.225). All of the test data being submitted was collected by a single test facility (Element Materials Technology, 41 Tesla, Irvine, CA 92618).

Sincerely,

Ventana Medical Systems, Inc.
