In response to your comments dated 20 June 2007 regarding the application for certification of the devices referenced above please find our responses below:

1	The confidentiality letter requests confidentiality of the block diagrams, schematic diagrams and the circuit/technical description but no exhibit named circuit/technical description exists in the application. Please amend you letter requesting confidentiality to specify what exhibit the circuit/technical description is (is it the operational description?).
Reply	Corrected confidentiality request letter updated (Rev 1) and is now uploaded for review.
2	The internal photo entitled Figure 4-84294 on the left side appears to have a shield over components on the PC board. Please provide a photo of this PC board with this shield removed.
Reply	That component is a sealed and shielded DC/DC inverter purchased as a single part.
