

Model Name : RN24

FCC ID Label & Location

Due to the size of this device is too small to be placed the other required statement, the following will be placed in the User Manual:

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.