Short-term Confidentiality

In addition a request is hereby submitted by Ekahau, Inc. to withhold from public review for a period of 45 days from the date of the Grant of Equipment Authorization and prior to marketing, certain portions of the application for equipment certification for the referenced FCC identifiers. This request for confidentiality is made pursuant to 47 CFR 0.457(d) of the FCC Rules. In particular, the following sections of the application are to be kept confidential for a period of 45 days from the date of Authorization:

Rationale for request for confidentiality:

Ekahau, Inc. has invested considerable time and materials in research and development to produce the referenced product. Disclosure of the permanently confidential portions of this application to competitors would not only give them significant competitive advantages in developing similar products, but would also disclose successful implementation of unpublished, leading edge technology developed by us. The product is first in the market with a totally new System in Package microprocessor from G2 Microsystems designed for the active RFID market segment. Thus revealing the implementation would be extremely harmful to our business.
