Housing Description

We can confirm that the radio aspects of the product have not been changed. Furthermore, the terminal is offered in two housing formats, Gun and Brick. The Brick housing means the terminal is held in the palm of the hand and the Gun housing is merely a plastic extender that allows the terminal to be used as a 'gun' type device. The handle of the gun contain no electronics.

This authorization expires on 31st January 2006.

Sincerely,

Gisbert Schmahl
Managing Director
