Attestation for FCC label location

Please be notified that we, the undersigned, ROKU Inc. declare that the product is compliant with the FCC labelling requirements since the following conditions are met:

- a) The device is handheld.
- b) The FCC ID is visible at the time of purchase. The device is sold without the battery installed hence the FCC label located in the battery compartment is visible to the user.
- c) The FCC label area does not require any special tool for access. The FCC label is placed on the PCB assembly, which is a fixed part of the device.

Sincerely,

Greg Garner
Director of Hardware Engineering
