

Description of Permissive Change

The report is prepared for FCC class II permissive change by adding DFS band through software enabling to its original parent application.

Both devices, original and updated versions, are electrically identical in all aspects except enabling frequency band of 5260 ~ 5320MHz.