Dear Tim,

Please find attached are the requested information with some explanation as below:

1. Submitted a revised Block diagram with frequencies.
2. Submitted a TX Top and Bottom pix/drawing Images. Please note that we could take picture with shield on it (Top view of the board - top left side pix). Others are drawing images. The bottom of the TX board does not have any components.
3. Submitted a revised manual with lesser file size (less then 4 MB).
4. Submitted a new FCC label drawings and Pix for FCC label location. Please note that the Nomadio would place both the labels, that having same FCC ID number, at the outside of bottom cover.
5. Nomadio would like to go for Certification with understanding that repeat of testing will not be required. Please provide additional cost estimate.
6. Please see attached document: Section 15.247(g/h) Declarations REACT FHSS.
7. Information has been included in Section 15.247(g/h) Declarations REACT FHSS
8. A separate exhibit for RF exposure evaluation is attached.
9. Radiated emissions test data has been reviewed, no further action determined.
10. Noted for future submission.

Thank you very much.

Dipak
