Dear Sid,

This letter is to confirm that DesignTech is no longer in business and that we have sold off or abandoned our various product lines.

In particular -LogicMark, LLC is picking up the 911 Guardian Alert product through the same manufacturer that we once used. Please work with them to transfer over the FCC license that we had for this product.

Sincerely,
