

Operational description

This product is connected to the internet through a Wifi connection. It moves its ears, change colors and play music. The data are transferred from a server (<http://www.nabaztag.com>). The data contains music and light and movements commands that trigger the playing of the music on the device.

The Wifi connection is done via a FCC certified PCMCIA Wifi card.