

Letter of Authorization

Date: Feb 8, 2023

Attn: To Whom it May Concern

Re: Authorization to Apply for a "Change in Identification" per Section §2.933(b) of 47CFR

We, Silicon Laboratories Inc., in relation to our 802.11abgn Wi-Fi wireless radio modules having model name of RS9116W-DB00-CC1(M/N: M7DB) and brand name of Silicon Labs, as the manufacturers hereby declare to have applied for, and to have obtained a Federal Communications Commission (FCC) grant with FCC ID: XF6-M7DB7 and with original issue date of 07/27/2020, and with this letter we grant permission on a one-time basis to the following company:

ASSA ABLOY Inc [hereafter referred to as the New Grantee]

Full Address: 110 Sargent Drive, New Haven, CT, United States 06511

Grantee Code: U4A

to apply for a "Change in Identification" with FCC, as per FCC guidance under KDB 249634.

We understand that the New Grantee is requesting an authorization to make this change to integrate our modules in their own unique products, under their own naming and branding, as follows:

New brand and model name of module: ASSA ABLOY Inc /U4A-MOD9134

FCC ID: U4A-MOD9134 [newly established, for re-branded/re-named module above]

Thus, we authorize FCC to use information on file to grant the requested "Change in Identification".

We confirm we will be supplying our RS9116W-DB00-CC1(M/N: M7DB) modules to the New Grantee unmodified and equivalent (in the design, circuitry, or construction) to the originally certified equipment. The original test results and technical documentation continue to be representative of, and applicable to the supplied equipment which will be bearing the changed identification. The original grant will remain in effect, nevertheless.

We emphasize to have no control or responsibility with regards to the proper installation, configuration and use of our modules in the products manufactured and sold by the New Grantee. As a result, the New Grantee shall take full ownership and accountability for the compliance of their products, including any appropriate labeling to take into account the new identification, and commit to submit in any following permissive change application of theirs all the intended documentation, including but not limited to test reports, exterior photographs and product user manuals.

This authorization expires four (4) months after the date of issue. Should there be any query regarding this authorization, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
