

What it is:

The DRS X10 (Marketing name M10) is a high-performance tablet PC that runs on the Microsoft Windows XP® Professional Tablet PC Edition operating system.

What it does:

The iX104 PC Tablet is and operates just like any other PC based computer. It has a built in Intel 3965abg WiFi radio card and can have optional Blue tooth radio.

How it does it:

The X10 utilizes the 1.2 GHz Intel® Core Duo™ processor U2500 that enables the use of a full Windows Operating System. The CPU speed is 1.2Ghz and uses the The Intel® 945G Express Chipset delivers outstanding system performance through high-bandwidth interfaces such as dual-channel DDR2 memory, 1066/800 MHz system bus. Integrated interfaces allow flexibility in configuring setup uses, DC power input, 1 USB 2.0, microphone and headset jacks, LAN 10/10/1000. Integrated into the iX104 tablet is Intel's 3965abg device allowing WLAN connectivity through an internal antenna.