

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules.
 Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1)
 This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2)
 this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired
 operation.