REQUEST FOR DISMISSAL OF APPLICATION

April 13, 2011

[Federal Communications Commission
7435 Oakland Mills Road
Columbia MD 21046]

Re: Aliph
Equipment Certification Application (FCC ID V3J-JBD)

To whom it may concern:

On October 15, 2010, documents were electronically filed with the Federal Communications Center in support of Aliph's Equipment Certification Application, FCC ID V3J-JBD.

The commercial product associated with this application has not yet been brought to market as it is still in development. Accordingly Aliph requests that this application be dismissed. Aliph expects to resubmit this application when development is complete

Please direct any questions regarding this submission to the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Sue Vaughan, Senior Director, Legal Services
