In re : eb Corp.
FCC ID : VASEBT100
DECLARATION

Gentlemen:

We, eb Corp., of the above address hereby declare, at our sole responsibility, that our Driver's console (Model: EBT-100) is in compliance with the following FCC requirements.

The Driver's console have the GSM and the PCMCIA WLAN 802.11b module.

The GSM Modele is based on granted model (FCC ID: QIPMC56).

An install place of the originally granted module became the change. It is installed at the Driver's console inside. And The WLAN 802.11b module is installed at the Driver's console inside.

The WLAN 802.11b module is capable of transmitting simultaneously with the GSM module.
When the WLAN is transmitting simultaneously with the GSM module,

The Driver's console was good operating for the EMC intermods emissions generated as a result of the simultaneous operation of WLAN and GSM transmitters.

And this time we are going to obtain the FCC grant of the Driver's console as new application.

Sincerely,

PARK, Jae Hyun
