Dear Sir or Madam:

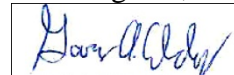

We, Coulomb Technologies Inc., hereby declare that the product: Electric Vehicle Charge Station, CT2021 and CT2025 is electrically identical with the same electromagnetic emissions and electromagnetic compatibility characteristics as CT2000 tested by Cetecom.

Descriptions of the differences between the tested model and those that are declared similar are as follows:

The following options are built-in to the CT2021, CT2025 and are not in CT2000. CT2021, CT2025 will have dual L2Core output. All the radios' locations and physical characteristic will be the same as CT2000. All models, CT2000, CT2021, CT2025 will use the same exactly same Main board, Pilot board.

Please contact me should there be need for any additional clarification or information.

Best Regards,
