Neihu, Taipei 114, Taiwan, R.O.C.

Dear Mr. Chiou:

Our office has reviewed your application requesting a U.S. Coast Guard Certificate of Approval for the Alltek Marine Electronics, Camino-101 Class B Automatic Identification System (AIS). The Alltek Camino-101 was successfully tested by Bundesamt fur Seeschifffahrt und Hydrographie (BSH), Phoenix Testlab, and QuieTek as meeting the requirements of IEC 60945, IEC 61162 (applicable parts), IEC 62287, and IMO Resolution A.694 (17).

The following approval number has been assigned:

Alltek Marine Electronics Camino-101
165.156/11/0

Dated: June 24, 2010
Expires: June 24, 2015

This certification remains valid until June 24, 2015 unless our office suspends, withdraws, or terminates it. The device manufacturer may apply for extension of this certification by writing to our office before it expires. If the equipment is no longer produced our office continues to consider it certified based on the date of manufacture, the vessel installation date, and the valid certification for that time period. You cannot transfer this certification to another manufacturer without written authorization from our office. You must notify our office in writing when you make any change in the design or construction of the device or when you cease manufacturing the device.

Final shipboard acceptance of the Alltek Marine Electronics, Camino-101 Class B Automatic Identification System is based on the installation, materials, and workmanship being to the satisfaction of the cognizant Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection.

Sincerely,
