

Professional Installation Justification

1. The WKVD module is not sold to end user or general public and is always sold by agent.
2. The WKVD module is a non-consumer device inaccessible to general public.
3. The device is mounted on valves in a chemical process lines and its location is always fenced or locked and only serviceable by the licensee or designated technicians.
4. The installation is done in hazardous areas and hence must be done by professional and licensed technician.
5. Installation requires special training for programming, access to keypad, RF field strength measurements.
6. The WKVD module is intended to be installed in another box / equipment by professional personal, tested and resold for wireless valve monitoring in a chemical / process plant. The application is commercial – to assist and control running a process plant.

Israel Radomsky – Vice Chairman

Apr 2013