Dear Sir,

We, Schindler Elevator Ltd., hereby declare that our products have the following differences between all numbers.

|--------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
| Model        | 1.0                                                                       | 1.x ( where x depends on the FW version) |
| Product Name | iSPECI BLE Adapter                                                        |                                          |
| Trade Name   | Schindler                                                                 |                                          |
| Notes        | 1.x (where x means same HW, new FW but with NO changes on RF parameters). |                                          |

Sincerely,
