EUT View 4	 A photograph showing a television lying flat on a light-colored tiled floor. A yellow measuring tape is placed along the bottom edge of the television, indicating its width. The background shows a white wall and a doorway.
