To whom it may concern:

The FCC and IC label is under the battery lid due to below reasons:

1. The FCC and IC label is visible when the user opens the lid. When the user receives the product, he has open the lid to place the 2 AAA batteries. If he doesn't, the product cannot work. This is clearly shown p.9 of the KIX300 user manual, or p.7 of the KLN300 user guide.
2. Label placed on the exterior of the equipment affect the appearance according to design requirements; otherwise, it would be easily removed or damaged.
3. The FCC and IC ID are also available at the end of the user manual.
