

FM1S

The singlephase Vision meter is a solid state watthour meter designed to accurately and dependably measure energy consumption in all singlephase utility configurations. When equipped with the High Power Airpoint module the Vision meter provides energy consumption information via 900MhZ radio to utility mobile meter reading equipment.