Alarm.com certifies that the submitted documents properly describe the service or system for which equipment certification is sought. Alarm.com also certifies that each unit manufactured, imported or marketed, as defined in FCC regulations, will have affixed to it a label identical to that submitted for approval with this application.

In signing this letter, the Applicant certifies that neither the applicant nor any party to the application is not subject to a denial of Federal benefits, that include FCC benefits, pursuant to Section 5301 of the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988, 21 U.S.C. §862 because of a conviction for possession or distribution of a controlled substance. Further, no party, as defined in 47 CFR 1.2002(b), to the application is subject to denial of federal benefits, that includes FCC benefits.

We also declare that the information provided to the FCC is true and correct to the best of our knowledge (47 CFR 2.911(d)) and we have been informed of the grantee responsibilities (47 CFR 2.909) with regard to certified equipment.

For instances where our authorized agent signs the application for certification on our behalf, I acknowledge that all responsibility for complying with the terms and conditions for certification, as specified by Sporton International Inc., still resides with:

Applicant: Alarm.com Incorporated
Address: 8281 Greensboro Drive, Suite 100
Tysons, Virginia, 22102
USA

This Letter of Authorization shall remain in force until the earlier date when the certification process is completed or January 22, 2026.

Please forward any acknowledgements or requests for response directly to Sporton International Inc.
