FCC response on 01/25/2023

1. Is this question derive from the Part 15.101(e)? A composite can be a 15B device component if certified.
2. Are intentional radiators subject to part 15C also subject to this question?
For example, a Bluetooth mouse marketed with a Bluetooth dongle. No The mouse and Bluetooth USB requires separate FCC ID.

A 731 composite for 731 is a product marketed and sold that is certified under one FC ID for more than one equipment class.
