New FCC ID application based on FCC ID: UYW-427-0002

I hereby request a new FCC ID, YYW-427-0004, for the em-trak B400 based on the SRT Artemis, FCC ID UYW-427-0002.

The em-trak B400 differs from the Artemis 427-0002 only in branding, it's features, functionality and performance are the same. The branding extends to the front panel label and the covers on the product manual, nothing else is different. Therefore, all the test results and reports provided with the original application for the Artemis 427-0002 apply equally to the em-trak B400.

This letter is permission from SRT Marine Systems plc for an application to be made for a new FCC ID for the em-trak B400 based on the grant for the Artemis, FCC ID UYW-427-0002, and using the reports provided as part of that original application.

Yours sincerely,
