Request for Short-Term Confidentiality Justification

Short Term Confidentiality request justification regarding application for certification of FCC ID: Z4C-7000

We request that the User Manual for this product remains under short term confidentiality with the following justification detailed below in relation to Sections 0.457 and 0.459.

With regards to Section 0.459:

- (b)(1) Confidentiality is sought for the GPZ-7000 User Manual
- (b)(3) The above materials contain proprietary information relating to a product for future release. Early release of this material considerably prior to product availability would likely have negative commercial implications.
- (b)(4) Not applicable
- (b)(5) The above materials contain proprietary information relating to a future product which would be of benefit to our competitors.
- (b)(6) The above materials have remained confidential within Minelab or released to third parties under non-disclosure agreements.
- (b)(7) The above materials are not available to the public, and released to third parties under non-disclosure agreements.
- (b)(8) Confidentiality period requested is aligned to product release where the above materials will be available to the public.

There are no relevant clauses under the categories of Section 0.457.
