The label artwork is on a black background. At the top left is the Larksound logo, which features a stylized bird with wings spread above the word 'LARKSOUND'. To the right of the logo, the date '08/2021' and 'Made In China' are printed. Below the logo, the product name '2.0CH 3D Soundbar System' and 'Model No: L200' are listed. The input specification 'Input: 18.0V --- 1.5A' is followed by a power symbol. On the right side, there is a square QR code and a crossed-out trash can icon. In the center, there are two warning boxes: one with a lightning bolt and exclamation mark saying 'CAUTION! RISK OF ELECTRIC SHOCK DO NOT OPEN', and another below it saying 'TO REDUCE THE RISK OF ELECTRIC SHOCK DO NOT REMOVE COVER (OR BACK)'. Below these is the FCC ID 'FCC ID:ZRR-SB924'. A paragraph of text states: 'This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.' At the bottom, the 'HDMI' logo is prominently displayed with a registered trademark symbol, followed by the text 'HIGH-DEFINITION MULTIMEDIA INTERFACE'. The final line of text reads: 'HDMI, HDMI High-Definition Multimedia Interface, and the HDMI Logo are trademarks or registered trademarks of HDMI Licensing LLC.'
