Dear Sir or Madam:

We B Mobile HK Limited hereby declare that product: GSM Mobile Phone, FCC ID: ZSW-K325 was tested by BACL, the results of which are featured in BACL project: RSZ120809003.

This phone main chip is MT6252, although this chip has GSM/GPRS (Class 12) capability, but due to marketing purpose and the capacity of phone, we already shield GPRS function in our mobile phone by software, so this phone without GPRS function, and the software is totally controlled by the manufacture, the user have no access to any GPRS settings to activate GPRS. Please contact me should there be need for any additional clarification or information.

Sincerely Yours,

Wenzhi Sun
Project Director
