

DB Elettronica Telecomunicazioni has designed, built, and tested the FM transmitter model PM-300. This transmitter consists of component and subassemblies to provide FM broadcast quality transmission meeting applicable FCC rules and regulations. The submission of the following exhibits will demonstrate compliance with applicable Part 2 and Part 73 rules and regulations. These transmitters are intended for use in full service FM broadcast stations and in LPFM service broadcast stations.

Signature

 DB Elettronica Telecomunicazioni S.p.A.