Response to Question 10

This notification does not result from an acquisition. Sprint RUS LLC and Sprint (Thailand) Limited are two new subsidiaries established to operate as competitive carriers in Russia and Thailand, respectively.

Responses to Questions 12 and 16

Russia and Thailand are both WTO Member countries.¹

Pursuant to Section 63.10(a)(3) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.10(a)(3), Sprint continues to qualify for non-dominant classification on both the U.S.-Russia and U.S.-Thailand routes because neither Sprint RUS LLC nor Sprint (Thailand) Limited hold market power on the foreign end of these routes, respectively. Both Sprint RUS LLC and Sprint (Thailand) Limited are newly formed, wholly-owned indirect subsidiaries of Sprint Corporation and thus are new market entrants. Neither Sprint RUS LLC nor Sprint (Thailand) Limited own or control any bottleneck facilities or have a fifty percent or greater market share in the international transport and local access markets in their respective countries. Moreover, neither Sprint RUS LLC nor Sprint (Thailand) Limited are listed on the Commission's List of Foreign Telecommunications Carriers that are Presumed to Possess Market Power in Foreign Telecommunications Markets. See Public Notice, The International Bureau Revises and Reissues the Commission's List of Foreign Telecommunications Carriers that are Presumed to Possess Market Power in Foreign Telecommunications Markets, Jan. 26, 2007, available at
