RE: Notification of CTC Long Distance Services, LLC.

ITC-214-19930405-00054

Dear Ms. Dortch:

CTC Long Distance Services, LLC ("CTCLD"), formerly known as Concord Telephone Long Distance Co., pursuant to Section 63.19 of the Commission's Rules, hereby furnishes this notification that it will be discontinuing services to customers located in one distinct subdivision in Raleigh, North Carolina on or before May 3, 2006. The subdivision is named Maybrook Crossing. This does not impact any other location in Raleigh, North Carolina.

1. Name of the parties of the discontinuance: CTC Long Distance Services, LLC.
2. Type of telecommunication service(s) provided to the affected subscribers: International long distance services
3. Date of the discontinuance: May 3, 2006

CTC Long Distance Services, LLC hereby certifies compliance: (a) with the requirement to provide advance subscriber notice in accordance with section 63.19; (b) with the obligations specified in that notice; and (c) with other statutory and Commission requirements that apply to this process. A copy of the advance subscriber notice mailed by CTCLD to the affected customers on February 17, 2006, is attached. If there are any questions, I can be reached at 704-722-2336.

Respectfully Submitted,

SAMPLE OF CUSTOMER NOTIFICATION LETTER

NOTICE OF COMMUNICATIONS SERVICE DISCONTINUANCE
DO NOT DISREGARD THIS NOTICE

RECEIVED

February 17, 2006

APR 27 2006

Dear CTC Long Distance Services, LLC Customer:

Policy Division
International Bureau

We regret to inform you that CTC Long Distance Services, LLC ("CTCLD") plans to discontinue the services it offers to customers located in the Maybrook Crossing subdivision in Raleigh, NC for business reasons. As a result, this letter is to notify you that we will discontinue all INTERNATIONAL LONG DISTANCE SERVICES you may receive in your current service location by May 3, 2006.

You must select a new service provider for international long distance service as soon as possible to avoid any interruptions of service. Please do not delay in making arrangements with a new provider. If you do not choose a new carrier by May 3, 2006, you risk losing communication service. To help avoid service disruption, please check that all service types you currently have with CTCLD (IntraLATA, interLATA, and international long distance long distance services) are transferred to your new carrier. Once you have chosen your new provider, CTCLD will assist you and the new carrier with the transition of your service. Any deposit on your account that is held by CTCLD will be applied to your final bill.

As required by the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC"), you are receiving this notice of service discontinuance in accordance with the FCC's rule 47 CFR 63.19.

CTC Long Distance Services appreciates the opportunity we have had to serve you. We are committed to making your service transition as smooth as possible. If you have any questions regarding the discontinuance of our services, please contact us at 800-230-2575.

Sincerely,

CTC Long Distance Services, LLC
