Re: Surrender of the International Section 214 Authorization of Cleartel Communications, Inc.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of Cleartel Communications, Inc. (“CCI”), this letter surrenders, effective immediately, the following International Section 214 Authorization of CCI under which CCI’s operating subsidiaries¹ previously provided service:²

IB File No. ITC-214-19990729-00457, which was assigned from NOW Communications, Inc., Debtor-in-Possession, to CCI in IB File No. ITC-ASG-20031126-00555 (the “International 214 Authority”).

The Cleartel Entities, however, no longer provide telecommunications services following the completion of the migration of the Cleartel Entities’ customers to Birch Communications on August 25, 2009.³ Cleartel, therefore, no longer requires the International 214 Authority and Cleartel is in the process of winding its business down and dissolving each Cleartel entity, which Cleartel intends to complete by mid-December 2009. Because Cleartel does not currently serve any customers or have any active

¹ CCI’s operating subsidiaries include Cleartel Telecommunications, Inc., IDS Telcom Corp., nii communications, ltd., Now Communications, Inc., Supra Telecommunications and Information Systems, Inc., and Telecon Communications Corporation (collectively, the “Cleartel Entities” and together with CCI, “Cleartel”).

² CCI never provided telecommunications services itself.

³ See IB File Nos. ITC-ASG-20090508-00209 and ITC-ASG-20090605-00271; WC Docket No. 09-67.
