Fone.Net, LLC ("Fone.Net"), hereby requests authority, to provide global international resale services between the United States and international points pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. Section 214 (1982), and Section 63.18(e)(1) of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. Section 63.18.

Fone.Net is a U.S. company organized to provide both domestic and international telecommunications services. Fone.Net has no foreign affiliations. Fone.Net serves business customers throughout the United States.

By granting this application, the Commission will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity by promoting competition in the international services market. Competition will benefit U.S. consumers by increasing service options and lowering prices.

Thus, the public interest will be served by the grant of Section 214 authority to Fone.Net.

RE: Fone.Net's Section 214 Application

In an effort to clear up the confusion related to the Section 214 Application for Fone.Net, LLC the following information is respectfully submitted.

Fone.Net is a consortium of 12 Independent Local Exchange Companies operating in the state of Colorado. Each of the companies involved have an equal share in Fone.Net and therefore none of the shareholder companies control 10 percent or more of Fone.Net.

Sorry for the confusion the original wording in the application caused. If further information is required, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your attention to this matter.
