Application

Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. Section 214 (1982), and Section 63.18 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. Section 63.18, Meritech Integration Corp. hereby submits this application seeking authority to provide global international facilities-based and resale services between the United States and international points.

Meritech Integration Corp. is a new U.S. company organized to provide international telecommunications services. Meritech Integration Corp. serves business customers throughout the United States and has no foreign affiliations.

By granting this application, the Commission will serve the public interest by promoting competition in the international services market. Competition will benefit U.S. consumers by increasing service options and lowering prices. Therefore, Meritech Integration Corp. believes that granting this Application public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by enhancing competition. Thus, the public interest will be served by the grant of Section 214 authority to Meritech.
