AMENDMENT TO SECTION 214 AUTHORITY INFORMATION
(Information update pursuant to 47 CFR § 63.21)

Gaecom Telecommunications LLC (Gaecom”) is the authorized holder of Authority to provide international telecommunications pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214 ( the “Act”), which was granted by the Federal Communication Commission's (hereafter called “Commission”) on December 27, 2000. Gaecom hereby gives timely notice to the Commission of the following update pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 63.21 of information on file pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 63.18:

Basis for Amendment

On February 27, 2009 Gaecom Telecommunications formally changed its name to “Fonebee LLC.” with the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations. Gaecom obtained authority from the Commission to provide International Telecommunication Services in December of 2000 based upon projected plans at that time. The company however did not pursue these intended plans and instead sold telecommunication equipment, specifically telephone handsets and phone systems, resulting in the development of a brand and the name change on February 27, 2009. At no time since December 27, 2000, has there been a change of ownership or control of the Company whatsoever. The Company now desires to Amend with the Commission its International Section 214 Authority so that in the near future it may offer telecommunication services under its proper name, and, proper business address which has changed multiple times since December 27, 2000, but now is at the below stated business address in the State of Florida.
