Re: Surrender of International Section 214 Authorization, File No. ITC-214-20010517-00314

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pacific Carriage Limited (“PCL”) and its successors in interest,<sup>1</sup> through counsel, hereby notify the Commission of the surrender of PCL’s international Section 214 authorization, File No. ITC-214-20010517-00314, effective as of June 28, 2021. Prior to that date, PCL did not provide any U.S.-international common carrier telecommunications services in reliance on this authorization. The surrender of this authorization will not result in, and is not otherwise associated with, any discontinuance, reduction, or impairment of any services or the retiring of international facilities or dismantling or removal of international trunk lines within the meaning of 47 C.F.R. §§ 63.19, 63.62, or 63.500.

Please contact Kent Bressie at +1 202 730 1337 or kbressie@hwglaw.com if you have any questions regarding this notification.

Yours sincerely,

Kent Bressie
Colleen Sechrest

*Counsel for Pacific Carriage Limited, Pacific
Carriage Limited Inc., and Pacific Carriage
Holdings Limited*

<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to a transaction consummated on June 30, 2021, PCL and Pacific Carriage Limited Inc. (“PLCI”), a Delaware corporation, entered into an assignment and assumption agreement pursuant to which all of the assets of PCL were transferred to PLCI. PCL was then merged into Pacific Carriage Holdings Limited (“PCHL”), a Bermuda company, with PCHL surviving. PCHL will be dissolved in September 2021.
