

Before the
FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
Washington D.C. 20554

In the Matter of Pangea Communications Corp
Application for authority pursuant File No.
to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934,
as amended for global authority to operate as an international facilities-based and resale carrier

Application

Pangea Communications corp. (Hereafter called Pangea) requests authority, pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. Section 214 (1982), and Section 63.18 of the Commission's Rules. 47C.F.R. Section 63.18 as amended, to provide global international facilities-based and resale services between the United States and international points.

Pangea is a new U.S. company organized to provide international telecommunications services.

By granting this application, the commission will serve the public interest convenience and necessity by promoting competition in the international services market. Competition will benefit U.S. consumers by increasing service options and lowering prices.

Thus, the public interests will serve by the grant of Section 214 authority to Pangea Communications Corp.
