Application for authority pursuant

To Section 214 of the

Communications Act of 1934,

As amended, for global authority

To operate as an international

Resale carrier

RECEIVED
JUL 13 2001

Telecom Division
International Bureau

APPLICATION

Gonzales Communications, Inc. (“GCI”), hereby requests authority, pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. Section 214 (1982), and Section 63.18 of the Commission’s Rules, 47 C.F.R. Section 63.18, to provide global international resale services between the United States and international points.

Gonzales Communications, Inc. is a U.S. based Company in New Century, Kansas. Gonzales Communications has no foreign affiliations. Gonzales Communications is an engineering and installation of telecommunication equipment vendor for different telephone companies. But Gonzales Communications seeks to serve the business and residential customers between the United States and Africa.

By granting this application, the Commission will promote good will, more convenience, and competition in the international services market between the United States and Africa. Competition will benefit U.S. consumers by providing better communication and lowering prices. Thus, the public interest will be served by the grant of Section 214 authority to Gonzales Communications, Inc.
